Yee-Haw Ladies' Night Out Fundraiser Wrap Up

Howdy Partners!

I am so excited to share some of the “shenanigans” of the Western Hoedown Ladies' Night Out Designer Purse Bingo. The Western themed event encouraged attendees to lasso their “Gal Pals”, mosey on over to the St. George Fellowship Centre, form a posse filling a table of 8 or more and play Bingo for designer purses. Cowboy masters of ceremonies, Burt Keiper and Matt Weber, called out the bingo numbers and there was plenty of whooping and hollering by the ladies as designer purses were being won. There were 16 opportunities for 16 “cowgirls” to go home with a designer purse of their choosing.

Speaking of the “cowgirls” — a “Coolest Cowgirl Contest” proved very exciting. Our winner was a special surprise. Our “angel mom from Pennsylvania, truly was a GIRL COW. So many gals came dressed in their “Best Bib and Tucker”

Blacksmith Lucky Horseshoes were available for purchase and, in turn, became a reverse raffle where more designer purses were won. Panning for Gold was the 50/50 raffle and $355.00 went to our winning goldminer.

Yee-Haw Ladies' Night Out Fundraiser Wrap Up continued

Throughout the night, the General Store was offering many items to “purchase” through a raffle drawing. The “Wristlet Grab” proved fun as names were called and 12 winners got to “grab” the wristlet of their choice and hope an additional “gift” was inside. We cannot leave out the “door prizes” that were drawn throughout the evening too.

While the “cowgirls” enjoyed the many opportunities for going home with a purse, or General Store item the Chuck Wagon (Western Grub) and the Saloon could not be praised enough. St. George’s TLC Catering outdid themselves. Dessert was provided by the generosity of Gardner Pies and the Saloon was inviting with the generous donations of Ray Weber and the Coca Cola Company.

First and Foremost, the actual Lowdown on the Hoedown—was the Opportunity to be Together and have Fun. But I am pleased to share the outcome of the funds to be banked for the advancement of the Gathering Place -- $11,199.02

Thank you to everyone who attended, we applaud the Cowboy Men: our Masters of Ceremonies, our Bingo Manager, our Deputies, our Bar Tender, our Blacksmith, our General Store Manager, our Pan for Gold Director, and especially our Cowgirl Student (earning credit for service for her NHS application),—we could not have done it without them!
